Summary of Findings	Detail of Findings
Exempt from Identifying, Mitigating and Disclosing Relevant Financial Relationships	The learning topic is non-clinical (i.e. leadership, communication skills training), for a learner group that is in control of the entire content (i.e. spontaneous case conversation among peers), or self-directed where the learner is in control of their goals and report on their outcomes. Therefore the activity is exempt from identifying, mitigating, and disclosing relevant financial interest for speakers, faculty, or planners are

Content Validation Policy:

As an ANCC accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development, the Hawai'i State Center for Nursing (HSCN) is committed to ensuring that accredited continuing education (1) presents learners with only accurate, balanced, scientifically justified recommendations, and (2) protects learners from promotion, marketing, and commercial bias.

HSCN commits to the identification, mitigation, and disclosure of relevant financial relationships with faculty and planning committee members with ineligible companies prior to learning activity planning and implementation, consistent with concepts outlined in the ANCC Primary Accreditation Provider Manual and the ACCME Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education. HSCN also requires that all financial or in-kind support from ineligible companies is accepted and use in a way that maintains content validity and integrity, independence from and commits to disclosing this information to learners before learning activities begin.

Faculty may not actively promote or sell products or services during accredited education.
