

Research Policy & Education

Our purpose: Research development is a valued component within Prisma Health. Investigators and team members are encouraged to explore and engage in health research through inquiry and innovation.

Our role: The Office of Research Policy & Education serves as a backbone for the other Offices of Research Services and Clinical Research Units to offer and facilitate necessary infrastructure and education.

Our services:

- Research project management and strategy
- Policies/Standard Operating Procedures
- Research education through communication, events, training and professional development
- Internal grant opportunities (Grant In Aid and Seed Grant programs)
