

Photographer – ArcticNet agreement

In signing this agreement, ArcticNet and the Photographer agree to abide by the following statements:

1. That the Photographer is the sole proprietor of the photographs submitted by him/her to ArcticNet and that ArcticNet retains the right to accept his/her photographs as it chooses.
2. That the Photographer grants ArcticNet or its partners the right to use his/her photographs in any ArcticNet communications (e.g., Website, Conferences Website and related apps, Newsletter, Annual Report, etc.) or related partner communications (e.g., Universities, NCE, NSERC, etc.).
3. That the Photographer waives any right to royalties or compensation related to the use of his/her photographs in ArcticNet communications or related partner communications.
4. That the Photographer will retain exclusive copyright of his/her photographs.
5. That the Photographer grants ArcticNet the right to take action against anyone it has cause to suspect has made an infringement of copyright, such action being taken after consultation with the Photographer.
6. That ArcticNet will do its best to ensure that any reproduction of the Photographer's photographs is accompanied by the appropriate creditline.
7. That ArcticNet is not responsible for any loss of digital files supplied by the Photographer while they are in the possession of ArcticNet. It is the Photographer's responsibility to maintain archive copies of the digital files submitted.
8. That this Agreement is for an initial period of five years after which it can be terminated by either party following a six month written notice. If no notice of termination is given, the Agreement will renew itself automatically.
