Medical organizations call for new funding for mental health and addictions

The Primary Care Collaborative and the OMA propose a four-point plan to strengthen mental health and addiction services within primary care settings.

Ontario Medical Review: Fall 2022

This centenary edition of OMR is dedicated to our selfless members—past and present. This issue explores how doctors are helping to lay the groundwork for a seamless, integrated system to meet the evolving needs of patients.

Solutions for palliative care

In the latest OMA Spotlight on Health podcast, Dr. Sandy Budman, a palliative care physician discusses how making improvements to palliative care in community settings could ease pressure on the health-care system.
